Paraguay has no proven natural gas reserves, and it neither produces nor consumes natural gas. In recent years, the country has sought to promote the consumption of natural gas as a way to decrease the use of firewood and charcoal, which has contributed to deforestation in the country. However, barriers to natural gas consumption include a lack of domestic natural gas production and the absence of import pipelines.

As Asuncion positions itself as a renewable energy hub, battery storage plants will play an increasingly vital role in ensuring reliable, sustainable power for Paraguay's growing economy.
